VISA

To know all the wonders of our state, international travelers need to get visas for entry in Brazil, which are granted by Brazilian consulates spreaded in several countries.

Citizens of the countries of South America and the European Union do not need a visa, it is enough to present a passport or ID when entering the country.

Citizens of countries such as Australia, Canada, USA and Japan have the facility to apply for electronic visas for mobile applications and the internet. The procedure is very simple and quick, just enter the E-visa website

See the list of Brazilian consulates abroad for more information.

DOCUMENTATIONS

Check out the necessary documentation for the trip that will bring the best experiences for you.

- Brazilians on national trips must present original identification documents with photo, such as passport, identity card (RG), CNH and work permit.
- Children up to the age of 12 must present documents proving their relationship with the person in charge, such as birth certificate (original or certified copy), identity card or passport.
Note: No child can travel unaccompanied without judicial authorization.
